

HANSEN'S DISEASE SEMINAR

REGISTRATION

October 18-19, 2011

NAME

TITLE

ADDRESS

CITY

STATE

ZIP

PHONE

FAX

EMAIL

NO REGISTRATION FEE

Seating is limited.

SEMINAR SCHEDULE

First Day: 8:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Second Day: 8:00 A.M. - 12:30 P.M.

SEND REGISTRATION FORM TO:

National Hansen's Disease Programs
Training Department
1770 Physicians Park Drive
Baton Rouge, LA USA 70816
Fax: (225) 756-3760

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES
Health Resources Services Administration
Bureau of Primary Health Care
Division of National Hansen's Disease Programs
National Hansen's Disease Programs
1770 Physicians Park Drive
Baton Rouge, LA, USA 70816

NATIONAL HANSEN'S DISEASE PROGRAMS

HANSEN'S DISEASE IN THE UNITED STATES

DIAGNOSIS & TREATMENT

October 18-19, 2011

National Hansen's Disease Programs

1770 Physicians Park Drive
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70816

Phone: (800) 642-2477

(225) 756-3761

Fax: (225) 756-3760

www.hrsa.gov/hansens

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This seminar is designed to increase the level of understanding among healthcare providers regarding the unique characteristics and current concepts in the diagnosis and treatment of Hansen's Disease (Leprosy).

Attendees will acquire knowledge of:

- NHDP mission and general concepts of Hansen's Disease.
- Biological characteristics of M. leprae.
- Pathological changes in the skin and nerves from Hansen's Disease.
- Hansen's Disease cardinal signs and the criteria for diagnosis.
- Current treatment protocols recommended for Hansen's Disease in the United States.
- Management of two types of Hansen's Disease reactions.
- Physical changes due to inflammation of the skin and nerves, and secondary neuropathic changes (face, hands, feet).
- Prevention of disability.

COURSE CONTENT

- Clinical Aspects
- Treatment of Uncomplicated HD
- Immunology of HD
- Pathology of HD
- Management of Reaction
- Eye Care in HD
- Patient Presentations
- Dermatological Aspects
- Skin Smear Demonstration
- Differential Diagnosis
- Disability Prevention
- Ambulatory HD Care in the United States

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Dermatologists
General Practitioners
Public Health Physicians
Nurses
Social Workers
Other Medical Specialists (particularly those residing in areas of high prevalence such as California, Florida, Texas, Louisiana, New York, Massachusetts and Hawaii)

Continuing Education Credit

- American Academy of Family Physicians
- Contact hours pending approval by the Louisiana State Nurses Association (LSNA), an accredited approver of continuing nursing education

SPEAKERS

Samuel L. Moschella, M.D.
Lahey Clinic, Burlington, MA

Ebenezer Daniel, M.D.
John Hopkins University

The NHDP Staff
Baton Rouge, LA

NATIONAL HANSEN'S DISEASE PROGRAMS (NHDP)

The NHDP is a center of excellence providing comprehensive patient care for HD on site at Ochsner Hospital in Baton Rouge. Limited medical services are also available through 12 ambulatory HD clinics and select private physicians around the country.

The NHDP is also a renowned leader in Hansen's disease research through the Laboratory Research Branch at Louisiana State University School of Veterinary Medicine.

LODGING

Major hotel accommodations are located in the Baton Rouge, Louisiana area.

LOCATION OF TRAINING FACILITY:

*La Quinta Inns and Suites
Conference Room
1617 O'Neal Lane
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70816*