NSP Tuition, Stipend & ORC Payments

- Tuition and required fees are paid directly to the educational institution.
  Please note if the NSP does not receive an invoice from your school your tuition will not be paid.

- During the 2012-2013 school year, the NSP will pay a full-time student a monthly amount of $1,289 (before Federal taxes, if applicable).

- If your current status changes to part-time, or you have not submitted required documentation for the term (i.e. Enrollment Verification Form) you will not be in good standing with the NSP and may not receive stipend and/or tuition payments.
  If you have already submitted the Fall 2012 EVF with your required documents, going forward you will be required to submit an EVF with transcripts for every term you receive NSP support.
During the 2012-2013 school year, the Other Reasonable Cost (ORC) payment is an annual payment provided directly to each NSP participant and disbursed with the October stipend payment to assist in the payment of books, clinical supplies/instruments, and uniforms.

Please note that ORC payments are established at the time of the award and ARE NOT adjusted once the scholarship award has been calculated.

Stipend payments are typically disbursed by the end of each month; payments are not considered late until the 15th of the next month. If you have any problems with your Stipend/ORC payment, contact us by submitting an inquiry in BMISS.
NSP Tax Information

- All NSP payments made to and on behalf of the participant for tuition, fees, annual ORC and monthly stipends are considered taxable. Participants will receive a 1099-Miscellaneous Income Form detailing the amount of tuition and fee payments made on the student’s behalf per IRS guidelines by January 31, 2013.

- Participants will receive a W2 Wage and Tax Statement form noting cumulative stipend payments for the calendar year including the onetime ORC payment. Federal taxes are withheld from stipend and ORC payments based on the information you entered on your W4. State and local taxes are not withheld.
The NSP strongly recommends you contact a professional tax preparer for any tax related questions you may incur. The NSP can only validate the amounts on these documents are accurate and completed correctly. For liability purposes we cannot offer specific detailed tax advice.

- A breakdown of each required fee (see listing of eligible/ineligible tuition and required fees)
NSP Invoicing Guidelines for Educational Institutions

- Alternative Sources of Funding (other than the NSP):

1. If tuition and/or fees are paid in full or partially by other grants (e.g. Pell Grants) or scholarships, recipients should:
   A. Return or Cancel payments to the funding source and invoice the NSP for the tuition and fees owed. OR
   B. Continue the other source of funding and submit an invoice to the NSP for any portion of the tuition and/or fees that were not paid. Please send an itemized invoice. OR

   Example - If a recipient’s tuition/fees totals $12,500 and the recipient accepts a Pell Grant in the amount of $2,500, then the total amount billed to the NSP should equal $10,000.

2. If the other funding source pays for full tuition and fees, we will instruct your institution on how to invoice the NSP. Please send an e-mail to your designated NSP analyst stating that no payment is being requested for the student for the particular term/semester.
NSP Invoicing Guidelines for Educational Institutions

2. If a new NSP scholar funded in 2012 has taken out a student loan to cover the cost of tuition and fees while awaiting the NSP award, we ask institutions to do the following for either the summer and/or fall semester(s):

   A. Supply an itemized invoice to NSP showing the amount of tuition and fees paid for with the student loan.

   B. Please note the only two semesters in which such action is allowed are the initial summer and/or fall terms. Thereafter, student loans will be DEDUCTED from the tuition balance noted on invoices.
Student Loans

• Prior to learning of their award status, participants may have to take out a student loan to cover tuition and eligible fees for the Summer and/or Fall terms of their FIRST program/contract year.

• While the loan is ultimately the scholars responsibility, the institution should submit an itemized invoice to the NSP showing the amount of tuition & fees paid for with loans and other sources of funding.

• The NSP will remit payment to the institution for the total tuition and eligible fees amount MINUS other sources of funding (i.e. grants, scholarships, gifts, personal loans).

• Thereafter, it is incumbent upon the institution and the student to determine how any remaining credit would be applied to the students account.

• The NSP will NOT remit payments greater than the sum of tuition & eligible fees.
Student Loans-Example

- John Kamp was scheduled to begin nursing school at Americas University in August 2012. The tuition and fees for Fall 2012 were $15,000. Prior to learning his award status for the NSP Scholarship program John received two other forms of financial assistance - another scholarship for $1,500 and a Federal Pell Grant for $5,000. John’s tuition and fees were due prior to the date he was notified of his NSP scholarship award. In order to enroll as a full-time student, John had to pay his remaining balance in full so he elected to secure a student loan in the amount of $10,000.

- In September, after receiving the loan, paying his balance, and receiving a refund from the Financial Aid office, John is notified that he has been selected as an NSP Scholarship recipient and should have his school invoice the NSP program for the balance of his tuition and fee after deducting all outside scholarships/grants that were applied to his tuition. After sharing this information with his financial aid office, the university invoiced the NSP in the amount of $8,500 which covered the balance of his tuition and fees ($15,000) MINUS his scholarship and Pell grant ($6,500) and the NSP remitted an electronic payment directly to John’s school for $8,500.

- John contacted the NSP because he was under the impression that the NSP reimbursement would cover his total $10,000 loan since he used it to pay his tuition balance, and it was less than the amount of his full tuition and fees. He was informed that the NSP will reimburse universities for student tuition and eligible fees BALANCES following the deduction of any scholarships/grants/gifts. In this case the additional $1,500 funds secured through loans were solely John’s responsibility.
Student Loans - Example

- $15,000 = Tuition & Fees
- -$1,500 = Scholarship
- -$5,000 = Pell Grant
- $8,500 = Invoice NSP
- $10,000 = Student Loan
- -$8,500 = Amount owed to school
- $1,500 = Loan amount over what was owed therefore this amount is the student’s responsibility.
