A “Meeting in a Box” for Celebrating the 75th Anniversary of Title V of the Social Security Act

75 for Title V

Organize a group effort to engage in 75 minutes of community service. Track individual volunteer efforts and/or volunteer together as a group.

Community service could be done off-site, such as volunteering at a soup kitchen or reading to children at the local YMCA, or on-site in your agency. For instance, during a meeting staff members could assemble “moms’ kits” for prenatal or home visiting programs, write cards to parents serving in the military, or knit blankets for pediatric clinics or shelters. Check with local charities to find out about their specific needs.

“75 for Title V” participants and activities may be recognized in a variety of ways at the October 20, 2010 Title V 75th Anniversary Meeting in Washington, D.C., including during remarks at the meeting reception, awards ceremony, or in the program book. A montage of photos and video clips sent in may also be shown during meeting breaks.

Share descriptions, photos, or video clips of your community service activities by emailing mch75thanniversary@hrsa.gov. Include a brief description of your service activity and the number of minutes you or your group have volunteered, as well as your contact name and email address.
