DAY #1: TUESDAY, June 7, 2016

Purpose: The January and June 2016 National Advisory Council on Nurse Education & Practice (NACNEP) meetings will contribute to the development of the 14th annual NACNEP report, to include legislative, policy, and programmatic recommendations to Congress and the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. The January 2016 meeting reviewed definitions of population health and discussed the involvement of registered nurses (RNs) in current federal and private sector population health initiatives. For more information, please review the meeting minutes. The June 2016 meeting will discuss educational competencies needed to prepare the entry level RN for a role in caring for a population of patients with complex health needs within an evolving health care system.

Specifically, this meeting will focus on:

- Identifying gaps in education and competencies for RNs in population health
- The role of the RN in rural and frontier population health needs
- Developing actionable recommendations for the 14th annual NACNEP report
