When I joined FedStrive my Cardiac Risk Profile assessment showed that I was at serious risk of becoming diabetic. With the results of two key assessments - the Health Risk Appraisal and the Cardiac Risk Profile - and armed with advice from consultation with a FedStrive nurse, I started biking to work and going to the fitness center. I lost 15 pounds in three months and started turning my health status around. Thanks, FedStrive!

Health Risk Appraisal: Knowledge Equals Power

Before starting the journey to a better you, you have to have a starting point. The Health Risk Appraisal (HRA) is just the kickoff you need. Knowing your current health and wellness status gives you the power to monitor the right risk factors and make the necessary lifestyle changes to reach your goals. Take control of your health by taking the first step toward improving it.

To complete your HRA, visit FedStrive.foh.hhs.gov. Please be assured that taking the HRA is voluntary and confidential.
