

HRSA Tribal Advisory Council (TAC)

Call for Nominations across Four Areas: Great Plains, Nashville, Oklahoma, & Phoenix

HRSA programs provide health care to people who are geographically isolated and economically or medically vulnerable. This includes programs that deliver health services to people with HIV, pregnant women, mothers and their families, those with low incomes, residents of rural areas, American Indians and Alaska Natives, and those otherwise unable to access high-quality health care.

Role of HRSA TAC

HRSA created the TAC in 2021 as a forum for elected Tribal officials and HRSA staff to exchange views, information, and advice about:

- Emerging public health issues in Indian Country
- Urgent public health resources and service needs
- Collaborative approaches to address Tribal health priorities

TAC Composition and Period of Service

The TAC consists of one delegate and one alternate delegate from each of the 12

Indian Health Service geographic areas. HRSA TAC delegates and alternates serve a term of 2 years.

Eligibility

The area delegate and alternate delegate must both be elected Tribal officials who are qualified to represent the views of federally recognized Tribes in the area from which they are being nominated.

HRSA is soliciting nominations to fill TAC delegate and alternate delegate vacancies in the following four areas:

- Great Plains
- Nashville
- Oklahoma
- Phoenix

Benefits of Serving

- Elevate Tribal voices from your area
- Strengthen the government-to-government relationship with HRSA
- Help improve public health and well-being of Tribal communities

Meetings

HRSA will hold at least one TAC meeting each fiscal year, funding permitting. In-person meetings are preferred, though virtual convenings may be held.

Nomination Process and Deadline

Email TribalAffairs@HRSA.gov if you are interested in becoming a TAC delegate.

Nominations are considered for selection in the priority order listed below:

- Tribal president/chairperson/governor
